The NLAPW Bylaws, pertaining to MUSIC (Composition in Music and Dance) Membership

Music (Composition in Music and Dance) membership is open to composers, lyricists, arrangers, producers, engineers, choreographers, and drill writers.

1. A Composer shall submit three (3) original published or unpublished compositions, one of which has been commercially published or given public performance in the following formats, supported by either full scores or CDs, recordings, or videos:

a. Composers of (a) traditional composition, with classical notation; (b) non-traditional composition with lead sheet and chord symbols; (c) electronic music.

b. Song lyricists, with proof of credit, agreement or payment to composers.

c. Music arrangers, studio producers, engineers, with proof of credit, and supported by recordings, CDs, videos.

d. Choreographers shall submit recordings by notation by currently accepted systems, film, videotapes, or digital recordings of three (3) works choreographed and sold or performed with verification of public performance of professional significance.

e. Drill writers shall submit copies of three (3) custom created choreographed complete drum and bugle corps or marching band shows of at least seven (7) minutes in length each, including all of the flow charts created for specific music, and proof of payment for these creations. The applicable music (published or manuscript, and not necessarily the creation of the drill writer) should accompany the submissions. The applicant must also include a video/DVD of the performance of a least one of the finished products.

2. Salaried composers or arrangers shall show proof of payment.

3. The applicant submitting an arrangement shall send a copy of the original and the composer's permission if the composition is not in the public domain.
